FUND OVERVIEW

First Asset Canadian Buyback Index ETF (the "Fund") provides investors with exposure to a portfolio of equity securities of quality companies with active share buyback programs that have significantly and consistently reduced their issued and outstanding share count. The Fund has been designed to replicate, to the extent possible, the performance of the CIBC Canadian Buyback Index (the "Index"), which uses a proprietary rules-based methodology to select constituent securities from those trading on the TSX that meet minimum market cap and average daily volume thresholds. Securities will be equally weighted and rebalanced quarterly.

As a result of the risks and limitations inherent in hypothetical performance data, hypothetical results may differ from actual Index performance.

KEY REASONS TO INVEST

- Lower historical share price volatility relative to the S&P/TSX Composite Equal Weight Index with superior risk-adjusted returns.
- Buybacks represent a sizable share of corporate payouts. Focusing solely on high dividend paying companies overlooks a large opportunity set.
- Buybacks are the most tax-efficient form of corporate payout, as they result in capital gains as opposed to more heavily taxed dividend income.

INDEX DESIGN & STRUCTURE

In order for stocks to be included in the Canadian buyback portfolio, companies must demonstrate both sufficient activity and frequency in reducing their shares outstanding. Stocks listed on the TSX are ranked based on both of these screens every month, ensuring that the top 40 stocks with the highest composite scores are selected for inclusion. The model employs a turnover control mechanism to minimize trading, with a 3-4 year investment horizon.
